Professional Experience

Graduate Teaching Assistant

State University of New York, Buffalo 2007- 2009

ART 135- Self and Ritual, Spring 2009

Organized curriculum for 2-D design course with an emphasis on exploring ideas of 'self' and the complex interface between the personal and the larger cultural realm. Developed technical skills and studio practice through exercises in observation, material handling, manipulation of illusionistic form and space, and journal writing. Instruction included basic painting, color theory, print making, drawing, and non-traditional book work.

ART 111- Drawing Fundamentals, Fall 2008

Solely responsible for developing beginning drawing curriculum to benefit both art and non- majors with an emphasis on direct observation and expanding critical language and creative solutions. Introduced basic concepts and technical skills through materials demonstrations, lectures and ongoing critiques.

ART 223B- Figure Drawing, Spring 2008

Solely responsible for developing figure drawing curriculum with an emphasis on direct observation, critical thinking, and anatomical identification. Introduced basic concepts and technical skills through materials demonstrations, lectures and ongoing critiques.

ART 207B- Drawing Concepts I, Fall 2007

Solely responsible for organizing intermediate drawing curriculum with an emphasis on material and conceptual experimentation. Integrated critical readings and lectures on artists and cultural theory with material demonstrations in wet and dry drawing mediums. Helped students develop technical skills and a cohesive body of work informed by research.
